The Curriculum is a comprehensive set of modules designed to cater to the specific needs of school staff and cultural mediators. It consists of two sections - one for school staff and another for cultural mediators. Each module is designed with flexibility in mind, accommodating the participation of all migrant families. The modules vary in duration and can be delivered in different modes. The Curriculum focuses on inclusive education, intercultural mediation, language learning for migrants, and promoting health, wellbeing, and resilience. It aims to empower educators and mediators to effectively support migrant students and create an inclusive learning environment.
